WIBternship

What is it and why is it required*?

WIBternship is our new member program for freshmen and sophomores (although any WIB member is welcome to attend any workshops).

We lay down the basics of employability in a low stakes environment, focused on learning and development.

Our speakers and contacts want hire our members, so it is important to employ our members with the necessary skills.

What is the time commitment of WIBternship?

Every other Tuesday at 7:30PM* (opposite weeks as the body meetings)

Is WIBternship a competitive/rush process?

No! All we ask is that you show up, are engaged, and do your best!

WIBternship Requirement

Tuesdays at 7:30PM in Callcott 011

We ask you make you best effort to attend all meetings as they will each teach an important skill! However we understand life happens so one (1) workshop absence is allowed. The case competition is required.

Dress code is business casual.

Once you complete the program - you're an official WIBC member!

Next WIBternship

Our second WIBternship is on 9/16 at 7:30 PM

*please bring a laptop!

Dress: Business Casual

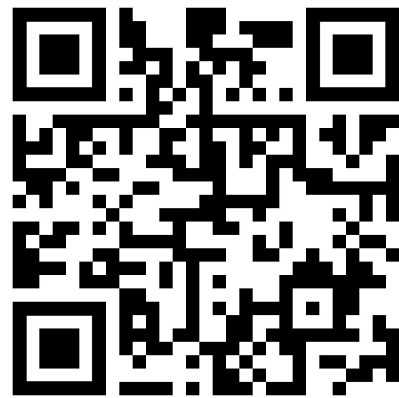

Harvard Intercollegiate Business Conference

This October we will be bringing members to attend the Harvard Women in Business Intercollegiate Business Conference in Boston, MA. We will fly out on Friday Oct 24 and fly back Sunday Oct 26. The application is due THIS SUNDAY, 9/14 at 11:59PM!

WIBC covers the cost of flights and the hotel. Attendees will be responsible for carpool/parking costs, and meals.

We will be departing Charlotte on Friday October 24th in the morning and will be arriving back in Charlotte Sunday October 26th in the evening. Please only apply if this would work for you.
