WIBC Body Meeting #1

wibc.

Speakers

We are The Wall Street Skinny: two lifelong friends with a combined 25+ years of experience working and teaching on Wall Street, on a mission to demystify and democratize access to high finance, high-powered careers, and all the things you've heard about in the business world that you were too afraid to ask!

Together, we've launched a podcast that has over 75,000 downloads in just 9 months across 135 countries. We are building a community of intellectually curious and open minded individuals around the world who are looking for access to information that has historically been nearly impossible to access. We break complex concepts down in layman's terms and educate through entertainment.

What is WIBternship?

WIBternship is our required new member program that lays down the basics of employability. Although these are targeted towards new members, all members are welcome to come to workshops. There will be 4 workshops and 2 presentations that include a group interview and a case competition

Why am I required to do WIBternship?

This program will introduce basic employability topics such as resumes/Linkedin, networking, professional dress, and also an opportunity to explore DMSB majors/minors/concentrations if you haven't decided yet! Our speakers and contacts love to hire our members, so we find it important to employ our members with these skills.

What is the time commitment of WIBternship?

Every other Tuesday at 7:30PM (opposite weeks as the body meetings)

Is WIBternship a competitive/rush process?

Not at all! Although we hope you put in effort into your group interview and case competition, there are no cuts, this is strictly an educational experience!
